Premier's Awards of Excellence in Design Call For Entries

Held in conjunction with Design Week, taking place in Saskatoon from November 14-18, 2011, the Premier's Awards of Excellence in Design is a juried competition recognizing outstanding applied design in Saskatchewan in seven different categories.

ELIGIBILITY

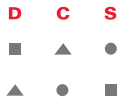

- Open to individuals and or corporate members who are in good standing with their DCS member association.
- Entries must be designed in Saskatchewan by Saskatchewan personnel and have been completed within the two-year period prior to Design Week.
- Each entry will be judged in its respective association category unless the collaborate category is specified.
- The collaborative category should demonstrate significant involvement of three or more member associations and cannot be entered in any other category.
- Each applicant may submit more than one entry.

JUDGING

- The jury will be composed of invited guests from the Speakers Series plus one representative from each member association.
- Entries will be judged on criteria appropriate to each category. However, the common theme will be excellence in design in Saskatchewan.
- Each entry will be judged in its respective association category unless the collaborative category is specified.
- One Award of Excellence may be awarded in each category. Certificate of Merit and Honourable Mentions will be designated in each category at the judges discretion.
- Awards will be presented at the Premier's Awards Gala, November 18, 2011.

SUBMISSION FORMAT

- For display purposes, all entries must be securely mounted to a light, rigid board (such as foam core).
- Entries may consist of professional quality photographs, illustrations, plans or printed samples.
- Maximum of two (2) panels per entry.
- No entrant identification on front. Display ID will be provided.
- Each entry MUST include, as part of the display, a brief design statement (max. 250 words) outlining design objective, constraints and challenges.
- Attached Premier's Awards Entry form must be copied and secured to the BACK of each panel.
- Provide high resolution jpegs or pdfs of the entry for possible presentation and publication. Either include with your submission on disc (preferred) or email to your DCS representative (listed on entry form).
- Entry deadline: Monday, November 7, 2011 @ 5:00pm
